How to become a candidate

1. Fill out the Declaration of Candidacy Form completely and truthfully.
2. Attend 1 of 7 candidate workshops.
 - Candidates will be notified of specific dates and times for candidate workshops. There will be 7 workshops offered between the dates of February 9 and February 20, 2015.
 - If candidates cannot attend a scheduled workshop, they must contact the Elections Director immediately and set up an appointment to review the required workshop information. This meeting must take place during the same weeks the workshops are offered.
3. Turn in the Declaration of Candidacy Form to the Elections Director through online submission by February 27, 2015 @ 5:00pm.
4. Submit the following documents by 5:00pm on February 27, 2015 through online submission; turn in the Candidacy Nomination Form ONLY at the ASUCR Front Desk located in the second floor of the HUB, room 202:
 - Candidacy Nomination Form: Collect 50 names, signatures, and Student ID (SID) numbers from students in the college you plan to attend next year. For example, if you are a candidate currently attending CHASS and plan to continue attending CHASS next year, then all the nomination information must be from CHASS students. If you are currently attending CHASS, yet plan to attend CNAS next year, then all the nomination information must be from CNAS students. All Student IDs and names will be checked against an electronic roster to ensure that the information is accurate and valid.
 - FERPA Rights Waiver Agreement
 - Candidate Biography Form: Write in 150 words or less a biography which will be used in the school newspaper, website, and other promotional published items. This should include goals for ASUCR and UCR as well as a platform you will be running on. Besides submitting an online submission, you must also send a typed version of this document to asucreelections@ucr.edu with a subject line including your name and "Elections Bio". If the bio is over 150 words or the e-mail subject line is not labeled correctly, it will NOT be used.

Mandatory Candidate Workshops

The Elections Committee will give presentations during the Mandatory Candidate Workshops to provide candidates with the information necessary to run in the elections including specific dates, rules, and regulations. During this workshop, candidates will be taking a photo to be used on the elections website and for other promotional items. Please dress in formal business attire for this purpose.

Any questions or concerns prior to the Mandatory Candidate Workshops can be addressed by contacting asucreelections@ucr.edu
